Cooling-Off Period and Digital Content Rights

If you are a consumer located in the United Kingdom, you may have the right to cancel your subscription within 14 days of purchase under the Consumer Contracts Regulations 2013.

For digital content and services, the Service will begin immediately upon purchase only if you provide your explicit consent by checking the box confirming that you:

- request immediate access to the Service, and

- acknowledge that by doing so you may lose your statutory right to cancel once the Service has begun, in accordance with applicable law.

If you do not provide this consent, your statutory cancellation rights remain fully unaffected.

Except where required by applicable law, subscription fees are non-refundable once the billing period has started. This does not affect any mandatory consumer rights or statutory remedies available to you under applicable law.

8.7 Refunds and Chargebacks

Refunds, if any, are handled in accordance with our Refund Policy and applicable law. Payment disputes and chargebacks are subject to the rules and procedures of the payment provider and the relevant card networks.

We grant you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use the Service and Content for your personal, non-commercial use only. It does not give you ownership or any intellectual property right.

You may not reproduce, distribute, modify, create derivative works from, copy, or exploit any Content or any part of the Company without our prior written consent.

We reserve the right to remove or block data in respect of which we received a notice of copyright infringement, if such notice has been made in compliance with law, as well as to delete a user's account which has been used for infringement.

10. Disclaimers and Nature of the Service

The Service provides tarot readings, astrological forecasts, natal charts, interpretations, and related content “as is” for entertainment and personal reflection purposes only. It is not a professional advice of any kind. You agree to use it at your own risk. You acknowledge that:

- The services provided are not scientifically validated.
- No guarantees are made regarding accuracy, outcomes, or predictions.
- Content should not be relied upon as the sole basis for important personal, financial, legal, medical, or professional decisions. The Service does not provide fortune-telling or predict future events.

The Service does not provide medical, psychological, legal, financial, or other professional advice. We aim to make the Services convenient and accessible; however, certain conditions, features, or outcomes cannot be guaranteed. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company, its affiliates, suppliers, and agents provide the Services and any related data on an “as is” and “as available” basis, without warranties of any kind, whether express or implied. This includes, without limitation, any implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title, and non-infringement.

11. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, or punitive damages, including but not limited to loss of profits, loss of data, loss of goodwill, or other intangible losses, arising out of or relating to your use of or inability to use the Service.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Company and its officers, directors, employees, affiliates, agents, representatives, and advisors shall not be responsible for any decisions you make or actions you take based on information or content provided through the Services. Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability for:

- death or personal injury caused by negligence,
- fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or
- any other liability that cannot be excluded or limited under applicable consumer protection laws.

Where liability cannot be excluded under applicable law, the Company's total liability shall be limited to the maximum extent permitted by law and, where permitted, shall not exceed the total amount paid by you for the Service during the three (3) months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

Some jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of certain damages, so some of the above limitations may not apply to you. In such cases, the Company's liability will be limited to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

If you are a user located in New Jersey, USA, the sections of these Terms relating to disclaimers of warranties and limitations of liability are intended to apply only to the extent permitted by New Jersey law. If any part of those sections is found to be unenforceable under applicable New Jersey law, such determination shall not affect the enforceability of the remaining provisions.

If any provision of these Terms is held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court or other competent authority, that provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

Further details on how we collect, use, store, and protect personal data are available in our Privacy Policy, which forms part of these Terms.

14. Termination

We may suspend or terminate your account immediately if you breach these Terms, applicable law, or if required for legal or security reasons.

You may stop using the Service and cancel your subscription at any time. Upon termination, your right to access the Service will cease.

Termination of your account or subscription does not affect your rights regarding personal data, which continue to be governed by our Privacy Policy and applicable data protection laws.
